

---

Michael F. Jaggard

Executive Director, Acquisition and Business Management Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy Research, Development and Acquisition

Mr. Jaggard is currently the senior civilian contracting officer responsible for community leadership of the more than 5,000 contracting specialists in the Department of the Navy. His portfolio also includes responsibility for Naval Acquisition Policy for the entire Department. He has served in this position for 8 years.

Mr. Jaggard was appointed to the Senior Executive Service in October 2001 and has over 40 years of Federal Service.

Mr. Jaggard served as the executive Assistant to the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Navy for Acquisition and Logistics Management in the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy for Research, Development and Acquisition from August 2000 to September 2001, before retiring from active duty after 28 years of naval service.

Mr. Jaggard served as the Deputy Commander for Contracts at the Naval Sea Systems Command (NAVSEA) from August 1996 to July 2000. In this capacity he led the Federal government's largest buying office, responsible for procurements in excess of $18 Billion annually. He also managed a workforce of nearly 350 civilians and 20 military personnel, including 4 members of the SES.

Mr. Jaggard served as the Commander, Defense Contracting Management Command, Northern Europe from July 1994 to July 1996. In this capacity he was responsible for the oversight and management of more than $3.5 billion dollars in contracts awarded to companies in 13 European nations.

Mr. Jaggard served first as the Executive Officer and then as the Commanding Officer of the Naval Regional Contracting Center in Philadelphia, PA from July 1986 to August 1989. In this capacity he led the Department's largest Field Contracting Office responsible for awarding nearly 80,000 contract actions per year in support of over 500 customers.

Mr. Jaggard attended Officer Candidate School in Newport, RI and was commissioned an Ensign, Supply Corps, United States Navy in May 1973. Following graduation from the Navy Supply Corps School in Athens, GA, he was assigned as Supply Officer on board the USS Will Rogers (SSBN 659(G)) from December 1973 to February 1976 completing 4 Patrols in the Mediterranean. He then returned to Athens, GA as an instructor on the school staff until January 1979.

Mr. Jaggard was hand-picked to serve on the commissioning crew of the USS Emory S. Land (AS-39) from January 1979 to May 1981, completing a 6 month deployment to the Indian Ocean. Other assignments while on active duty included Principle Contracting Officer for Amphibious and Auxiliary Ships at NAVSEA from January 1983 to July 1986; Submarine Support Officer on the staff of Commander, Submarine Forces, Atlantic from August 1989 to June 1991; Supply Officer on board USS Orion (AS-18) from July 1991 to September 1993; and Executive Assistant to the Deputy Commander for Contracts at NAVSEA from October 1993 to June 1994.

Mr. Jaggard also served as an Infantryman in the U.S. Army from July 1967 to July 1969, including 12 months with the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment in South Vietnam in calendar year 1968.

Mr. Jaggard attended the Texas Arts and Industry University in Kingsville, Texas and graduated with a bachelor's of arts degree in mathematics in 1971. He also holds a master's of science degree from the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, CA, and is a graduate of the Executive Leadership Course at the Fuqua School of Business at Duke University.

Mr. Jaggard's decorations include the Legion of Merit (2 awards), the Defense Superior Service Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal (5 awards), the Navy Commendation Medal, the Navy Achievement Medal and the Army Good Conduct Medal. Mr. Jaggard was awarded the Presidential Rank of Meritorious Executive in October 2008.